An Oral Historian's Work

by Dr. Edward D. (Sandy) Ives

VHS or Beta, $60

The nation's first oral history instructional videotape takes you step by step through each phase of the process:

- Evaluating your equipment
- Conducting pre-interview research
- Making contact with informants
- Interviewing
- Transcribing

"AN EXCELLENT SERVICE for would-be interviewers around the nation. I use it in my graduate seminar at UCLA."

DALE E. TRELEVEN, Director
Oral History Program
Univ. of California, Los Angeles

"It's really what students, and others, need to quiet some of the nervousness. I plan to use it in my folklore class and let my colleagues know about it."

MARGARET YOCOM
English & American Studies
George Mason University
Fairfax, VA
